Assessment on utilities up $73,000

Hancock County's public utility assessment for 1962 is up almost $73,000 over last year, according to figures received this week from the State Tax Commission by Chancery Clerk Claiborne Ladner.

Total for this year is $3,599,808 against $3,527,061. Largest figure is Tennessee Gas Pipeline Co. with an assessment of $1,198,520 compared to $1,149,210 last year. Mississippi Power Co. is second at $679,015, up from $642,074.

Slight gains are shown by United Gas at $599,360, up from $596,300, and Southern Bell, now $479,968 against $463,206 last year. Unchanged are Western Union, $6,225; Railway Express, $877; and Shippers Car Line, formerly listed as Fruit Growers Express, $7,000.

Decreases in assessment are shown for Louisville and Nashville Railroad, down to $476,489 from $507,683; American Tel. and Tel., down to $138,990 from $140,590; and Pullman Co., $13,364 from $13,396.

Breakdown of the assessments by political subdivisions is: Bay St. Louis Municipal School District, $917,959; county schools, $2,349,492; Bay St. Louis, $557,792; Waveland, $178,098; Picayune Municipal School District, $332,357; Beat 1, $848,013; Beat 2, $315,839; Beat 3, $193,920 (all Tenn. Gas.); Beat 4, $744,168; and Beat 5, $395,129.

No breakdown was furnished in the 1961 report so that a comparison is not possible. Tax Assessor George Heitzmann commented that with last year's total assessment in the county of $14,161,370, he figured the 1962 figure would run in excess of $14,500,000.

TREUTEL INSURANCE AGENCY VACATES AS PRECAUTION

Before dawn Sunday 4 hurt in U.S. 90 crash

A head-on crash at 2:15 a.m. Sunday near the truck scales on U. S. 90 demolished two automobiles and sent four persons to Hancock General Hospital.

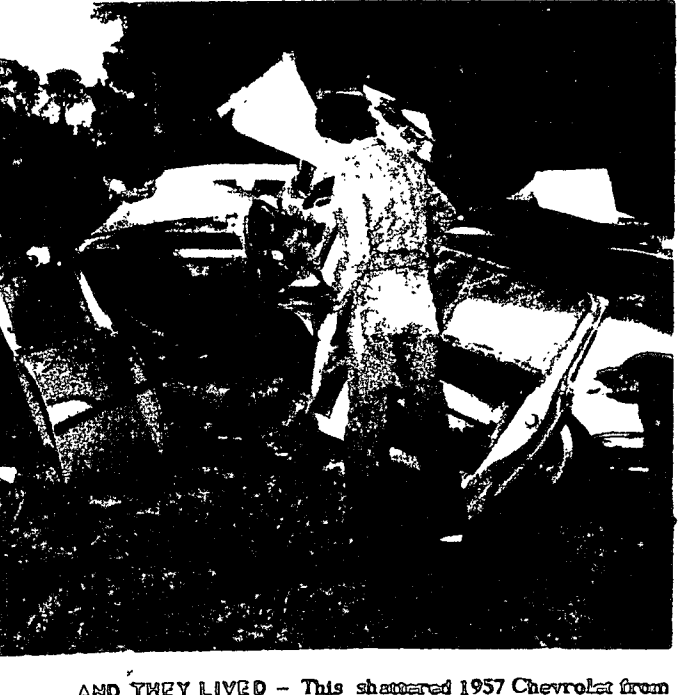

Highway Patrolman C. F. Blanton booked on a reckless driving charge Harry A. Sumrall, 20, of Perkinston, operator of a 1957 Chevrolet which collided with a '57 Oldsmobile driven by Herchel C. Foster, 42, of New Orleans, who was returning with his wife and son from a visit in Georgia.

Blanton said the Sumrall car apparently was travelling east at a high rate of speed when it struck Foster's vehicle, overturned, throwing the driver and Harry Gill, 20, onto the pavement before bursting into flames.

A NASA survey crew, suffered multiple lacerations as did Foster. Mrs. Foster's head was severely hurt, Blanton said.

TURKEY SHOOT

St. Stanislaus Sidelines Club will sponsor a turkey shoot Sunday at Stanislaus Stadium from noon to 5 p.m.

AND THEY LIVED - This shattered 1957 Chevrolet from which the two occupants were thrown in a pre-dawn crash Sunday on U. S. 90 was the object of attention this week at N. A. Pernicelli's wrecking service. Impact caused gas tank to explode, fire destroying all of rear portion and interior.

Thanksgiving fire razes old landmark

One of the oldest homes in Bay St. Louis, completed by the late John Tohms as a wedding present for his sixth child, in 1857 when this was still Sheldahl, was badly burned in a Thanksgiving afternoon blaze that cleared all fire-fighting equipment in the area.

Dr. Otto Mollere, who operated his dental practice in the wooden structure at 119 Main St. for the last six years, said the blaze was confined mostly to scorched walls and a lot of water damage after two hours of fighting heavy smoke and flames by city firemen, volunteers from Waveland, civil defense forces and dozens of neighbors. Post-Christmas equipment also was destroyed.

He speeded up his plans to move into a new building under construction on the rear of the property by one month and was back in business the next day, being able to save most of his equipment. His appointment book, Dr. Mollere explained, was the most vital loss.

The city fire department said the alarm was called in at 3:55 p.m. Thursday by Frank Trepani who noticed smoke billowing above the adjacent Masonic Temple building as he looked up from the beach front. Crews stayed on the job until after 6 p.m. Cause of the blaze has not been determined, firemen said.

The adjoining building, occupied by Treutel Insurance Agency which Dr. Mollere also owned, was vacated as a precautionary measure as water from the fire fighting task force threatened to damage the roof. P. J. Treutel said some filing cabinets and desks were moved into Peoples Federal Savings and Loan Assn. to get them out of the heavy traffic on the street. He is now located temporarily at 110 Court St. while quarters he formerly occupied and Mollere's building are being razed. That had been planned for after the new structure was finished.

Both Mollere and Treutel were high in their praise of the firemen who helped bring the fire under control. Dr. Mollere said he was taking a nap after enjoying Thanksgiving dinner with his family when notified of the fire.

John Toulon, one of whose sons later became a mayor of Bay St. Louis, built the home as a present for his daughter Madeline, who she married Evariste Saucier. At one time the grounds extended to what is now First Baptist Church, the Masonic Temple, Magnolia State Supply Co. and were among the most sumptuous in the area. Mrs. Townsend Wolfe, a

Warning from sheriff Ultimatum out on tags

If you haven't gotten your 1963 license tags yet, you'd better hurry on over to the Courthouse and get them on the double. Sheriff Gerald V. Price said Wednesday he is authorizing his deputies to start picking up offenders and they will be liable for punishment as provided by state law, normally a fine plus cost of the new tags with taxes and penalty.

"People who couldn't get in by the Oct. 31 deadline have had ample time by now to get the new license plates," Price remarked. He noted further that all trailers on courts must carry licenses and pay ad valorem taxes. He will not move at this time on trailers parked on property of the trailer owner, pending determination of their status by the tax assessor.

Old engine on display here Dec. 7

The nation's number one steam locomotive, the General, will arrive here at 11:10 a.m. Friday, Dec. 7, where it will be on display at the L and N station during the afternoon and evening. En route on a "whistle-stop" tour of cities along the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, the historic engine of Civil War fame will be running under its own steam just as it did on the Western and Atlantic Railroad a century ago.

Brief welcome ceremonies are being arranged by the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce. During its stop the public is being invited by the L and N, its present owner, to inspect the engine and coach, a rolling museum containing colorful dioramas of the Andrews Raid. It was during that Civil War episode that the engine was stolen by James J. Andrews and 19 Yankee raiders and headed north in an attempt to destroy the railroad track. Pictures and mementoes of that raid, and one of the first Congressional Medals of Honor ever presented, also are in the exhibit along with several full-color scenes of modern rail-roading.

Invitations are being extended to 40 persons to ride on the General as far as Waveland when it departs at 8:30 a.m. next Saturday for New Orleans, that number being its capacity. L and N officials said the Waveland depot would be the destination for the guests since the old engine will require more than five hours to reach New Orleans.

Price reported the arrest Tuesday afternoon by Beat 1 Constable H. G. Denn and Highway Patrolman C. F. Blanton of Stephen Hazard, 24, on a concealed weapon charge. Louisiana authorities are seeking extradition of Hazard on attempted theft of a boat motor at a fishing camp on the Pearl River. Price said the man was fleeing the scene when arrested.

Hancock chamber raps television program on MTF

Hancock County Chamber of Commerce last week wrote Edgar Sarn, Jr., board chairman, WDSU-TV, N. O., suggesting that future broadcasts by the tv station dealing with NASA's Mississippi test facility be more accurate as to its location and the affected area.

Cause of the complaint was a reported tv program Nov. 18, in which the anticipated impact on Slidell, La., and Picayune was presented with no mention of Hancock County in which all of the test site is located as well as 80 per cent of the total fee and easement area.

Referred to resident requirements for auto tags, the sheriff said his men are not seeking "true transients". Those persons who live in Hancock County or move here and display intentions of becoming domiciled should comply with the law requiring Mississippi plates, he declared. Newcomers have 30 days, he noted.

Sheriff Price took occasion to commend the cooperation exhibited by Highway Patrolmen Frank Blanton and Archie Fairley in patrolling the county and their attitude toward the number of newcomers. He cited two occasions within the last week when they had endeavored to assist motorists who otherwise might well have ended up in serious trouble.

Price also explained cost of these offenses to the violator is $10 fine with $5 costs plus $2 for the state educational fund. He added that knowledge of these facts should eliminate criticism of officials in carrying on their normal duties.

Yule lighting judging scheduled for Dec. 23

For the 1962 Yule lighting contest sponsored by the Bay-Waveland Garden Club were announced this week by Mrs. Joseph Kern, chairman, and Miss Veronica Mohr, co-chairman.

Three classifications are scheduled this year: outdoor display, picture window and doorway, with prizes to be awarded the winner of each.

Entries on postcards must be received no later than Dec. 22 to be eligible. They should be addressed to Miss Mohr at 135 deMontuzin Ave., showing clearly the name of the person exhibiting, address and the classification in which they are competing.

St. Nick due in Saturday

St. Nicholas himself sent word from the North Pole this week that he will arrive at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Bay toll bridge where he will be joined by the Rebel riders for a parade through the downtown business district before setting up headquarters at Kern's 5 and 10.

The beach front business area will be aglow with holiday lighting beginning Monday, an additional $700 worth of special decorations having been purchased to expand the display this year.

TB unit Yule seals are mailed

Christmas seals, traditional fund raising device to fight tuberculosis, went in the mail this week to some 1,000 Hancock Countyans. Mrs. Theodore Thomas, chairman of the county TB unit, announced.

Beat Rho chapter, Beta Sigma Phi sorority, again is undertaking the campaign here. Serving with the campaign here are Mrs. Thomas as chairman; Mrs. Joseph Church, publicity; Mrs. Joseph Kersanac, treasurer; and Mrs. Russell Elliott, health education.

Trash burning care requested

City firemen this week issued a stern warning about burning trash unattended both in Bay St. Louis and all outlying areas. They have been swamped, they said, with calls both in and out of Bay St. Louis, with trash and wood fires, adding that some appear to have been set deliberately.

Woods fires have been particularly bad on St. John and Easterbrook Streets, threatening to spread to nearby homes. Firemen noted that in calls out of the city where they are no fire hydrants their only supply is the 350-gallon tank truck.

YULE BAZAAR WEDNESDAY

Polly At Waveland

Just about everybody should have at least partially recuperated from turkey day which was one of the gayest in a long, long time. The weatherman cooperated beautifully providing cloudless skies and just enough breeze to keep the day from being too warm. We realize that it's high time that we come up with some thrilling, novel and of course brilliant ideas for early Christmas shoppers—one second ago we were positively idea-less, suddenly inspiration dawned like a ray of sunshine penetrating the usually murky cloud of the old brain. . . It's just too simple—don't kill yourself driving all the way to New Orleans—or even to Gulfport—we'll guarantee you can find almost any gift your heart desires at one of our local stores—just try it, you'll be amazed at the wide selection of clothing, jewelry, toys, appliances—in fact everything can be found HERE—there are more advantages than you can imagine. . . first money spent at home keeps returning to the spender in numerous ways—you save the cost of transportation and you can be comfortable. . . wear slacks . . . or even shorts if the day is unseasonably hot. . . and you'll be surprised at how much better your mind functions in a pair of tennis shoes or loafers than in spike heels. . . If you're really lazy—leave your purchases to be attractively gift wrapped and pick them up the following day. . . In trying to be helpful, we've just mentally accomplished all of our formerly tortuous shopping—and we're happy with the realization, that it doesn't have to be crammed into one or two expeditions! Pick up a few items at the time. . . easier on the pocketbook too!

News from stork land

Might as well begin with our latest report on bootie knitters—Marilyn and Buddy Haverly are anticipating the arrival of their second child as are Doris and Cliff Vogt. . . Barbara and Richard Bourgeois are also on the list—this will be their third.

Just about the proudest grandparents in Lakeshore, or anywhere else for that matter, are Ruth and Chink La Fontaine. Daughter Gloria and husband Marvin Mays' first son, little Robert Wayne arrived at Hancock General Nov. 19, weighing in at eight pounds, three ounces. . . Jona and Lawrence La Fontaine are also grandparents for the first time. . . little Lawrence III, was born in the same hospital on the same day—he weighed four pounds, one ounce.

Louise Wymer has been bothered with a severe case of bursitis—however she didn't let it interfere with baby-sitting with adorable granddaughter Renee last weekend.

We've been asked by members of the American Legion Auxiliary to extend their thanks to all donating gifts for the Veterans' Christmas Gift Shop—the drive was an over-whelming success, thanks to the generosity of just about everyone in town.

Bay side of the news

Adele Parks is to be congratulated, having been re-elected secretary-treasurer of the state Society of Medical Technologists at a recent meeting in Jackson. Carmen and Toby Piazza, Sharon and Cliff spent Thanksgiving in Handsboro as guests of Carmen's sister, Ruth Ellen and husband Ludwig Moran. Mamie and Max Gianelloni and children, Jeanine and Timmy journeyed to Baton Rouge where they enjoyed 'Mamma Gee' Gianelloni's gourmet talents. Get well wishes go to Lean (Mrs. Ike) Lang who has been having trouble with her eyes—and to little Caffee Lee Ramsey who had eye surgery in New Orleans last week.

Happy birthday greetings go to Mrs. Charles A. Hayes who celebrated on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 22, it's wonderful to see Baby Love Bourgeois looking like a million dollars again—apparently recovered from recent major surgery, Baby Love and Stella Gex were getting the jump on Santa by shopping early last Friday, Inez (Mrs. A. G.) Favre is justifiably proud of son Gregory—he and wife Martha leave Atlanta, Ga. for Washington, D. C. around the first of the year. Gregory, who began his career with the Echo, has written a number of magazine articles and until his recent appointment as press secretary to Charles Longstreet Weltner, recently elected to the U.S. House of Representatives from Georgia's 5th district, was assistant sports editor of Atlanta Journal.

One of the season's loveliest weddings was that of Linda Ladner and Gerald Tomasich, impressively solemnized at noon Saturday at Our Lady of the Gulf Church. Linda's brunette beauty was complimented by the crimson velvet gowns of her attendants, and of course, by her elaborate bridal gown of satin and imported lace. The yacht club was decked with arrangements of white gladioli, greenery and white tapers for the reception and everyone is still raving about the food—it was all out of this world but a seemingly inexhaustible supply of exotically broiled shrimp had everyone asking for the recipe—couldn't begin to mention all of the guests, but have to comment on a few of the outfits—Elva Ladner, mother of the bride, wore a striking off-white brocade suit in contrast to Mrs. Tomasich's becoming black sheath—Shirley Dumphy, Eunice Boudin, Myrtis McCardle, Belle Peterson, Rena Strong, Marion Brown, Gladys Baxter, Rae Garwood, Vi Cunningham, Leona Marquez, Ruth LaFontaine and Rubie Bordages wore chapeaux meriting comments, to say the least—Bertha (Mrs. Warren) Hale, out for the first time since her operation, was lovely as usual in black and her pretty auburn haired sister-in-law, Mrs. Lawrence LaFontaine chose a chic tweed suit—Grace Bordages' costume dress was red and black plaid, Fanny Marquez wore a brilliant red knit—Ruthie Davis, a black sheath, Mrs. Skeeter Starita, bright blue—and we could go on and on and on—but best save space for a little more news—much comment however, that we couldn't refrain from wondering about 'Miss Eva' Ladner's intentions when we spotted her holding the bride's bouquet, but she explained she was merely keeping it for a dancing niece. . . anyway, a really wonderful time was had by all!

On the sports front

Hate to report this, but Sidney Bourgeois and Charles Shambley caught not one small fish on their expedition—just about time they wet lines, the wind kicked up such a fuss they were forced to head for shore. . . mulleters however, continue to bring them in in large numbers. Heard the crew on the pier really had a ball Sunday a week ago as they recuperated from the Fireman's Ball—some net throwers had to be restrained from literally throwing themselves into their work—and incidentally in to the drink!

Worthy cause department

Sometime in the next few days most of you will be approached by a child or adult with the request to purchase a ticket to a movie to be shown at the Star Theater on Wednesday at 7 p.m. Donation 25 cents—we're urging your cooperation as all proceeds go toward the Youth Fitness Fund (playground equipment) for three local public schools—Waveland, North Bay and S. J. Ingram. This is the project of the year for Bay-Central P-TA and this equipment is sorely needed—if you have doubts, just drive past Waveland School and note the absence of even one basketball goal or a swing.

It's fun over 40 now

All members of the re-named Fun over Forty Club (formerly Golden Age Juniors) are asked to attend the meeting of this organization at 11 a.m. Friday at Bay Bowling Center. This will be an important session as officers for '63 will be nominated and a date set for the group's first social function to take place right after the holidays.

Two more bootie knitters, Eleanor Bordages and Patty Jean Tyne, were feted at a double baby shower Friday night at the Fellowship hall of Clermont Harbor Methodist Church. Eva Crow and Cora Mae Lusch were co-hostesses.

Rena Strong is all smiles—the reason being a lovely new car—gift from husband Ernest.

'Uncle Freddie' Bourgeois who arrived Wednesday from Cut Off, La., to spend the holidays with sister Ada Edel is also sporting a shiny new vehicle.

Wouldn't be quite fair to state that Max Treilles is going to the dogs—but he must have a way with canines. . . he came up with best of show honors with Mrs. Daisy Rothschild's male French poodle in Jackson last week. He had stiff competition as all entries were championship breeds. The show must have been something to see as many pooches displayed collars and leashes studded with genuine diamonds.

Party for Eastern Star

Rubie (Mrs. John) Bordages hosted a lovely party for Eastern Star officers at her Lakeshore home Saturday night. Enjoying chicken salad, potato salad, cold cuts, chips and dips, home made candy, etc., were Myrtle Olson, Ruby Green, Ruth Ketchum, Lonnie Marshall, Beatrice Ladner, Elise Depree, Joyce Moran, Theresa Crow, Ann Hutchinson, Viva Smith, Lenora O'Farrell and Azell and Gustav Doberin. Wonder how Mr. Doberin fared in the midst of all the ladies?

Ruth and Red Lee are celebrating the birth of their second grandson—Master Michael John Lee, born Nov. 20—Pat and David Lee are his proud parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Seal are maternal grandparents.

Gerri and Sam Blanchard entertained at a sumptuous oyster supper honoring house guests

Teen Times

It's back to the grind again after four wonderful days of Thanksgiving vacation. There were numerous parties and visiting college students kept busy comparing notes on various customs—slang varies at just about every institution—but is still popular with the PRC contingents—everything is just "great" at Southern—phrases from the other schools are even more colorful. We note with pleasure that the Cleopatra look seems to be going out of style. Coiffures are much more natural—hair has a refreshing combed look for a change and purple, blue or green circled eyes have for the most part vanished.

Jimmy Giannetta, former Echo employee who is photographer on the Pearl River College paper, was awarded a partial scholarship for his talent with a camera.

Ann Clark started former Bay High schoolmates by turning up at school Wednesday wearing a champagne blonde wig.

Others weekendend at home unmentioned in last week's column were Paul Miller, Buddy Sex, Alfred Bourgeois, Cleo Moran, Gene Ferry, Ripple Rausch, Rip Kennedy, Lynne Hall, Johnny Kramer, Kees Brammeyer and Jody Gex.

The Rebel Riders performed their square dance on horseback for an admiring audience at the Fairgrounds opening Thanksgiving day. The group, led by Betty Younger, was also viewed on television on sports programs.

Get well wishes are sent to Bobby Van Calsen who was unable to return home for the holidays—he spent his vacation in the Poplarville Hospital recuperating from surgery for a ruptured appendix. He's well on the road to recovery, but was in critical condition for a couple of days. Bobby's doing alright on the gridiron, scoring a touchdown when PRC met Hines Junior College.

Hope you're feeling better Al Lader—Al spent several days in Hancock General undergoing treatment for an infected leg—injured in a recent football game. Judy Guillot (and her horse of course) visited Ann Ballatin last weekend.

Clarine Hayward was elected president of the Waveland Rocket for the '63 season when the group selected officers last week. Tommy Hayward is vice president; Shirley Anderson, recording secretary, and treasurer; and Jimmy Lader and Marcel Anderson, sergeants at arms. Karen Williams (and family of course) were Thanksgiving guests of her grandmother, Mrs. Alice W. Casey of Jackson. Mildred Parker, second year home ec major at Pearl River Junior College, is one of 20 students at that school making the honorary scholastic society.

Clapp-Bottiglia...

Dean and daughter, Nancy, of Spokane, Wash., Mrs. Verna Schuster of Houston, Tex., Donald Cole of Shreveport and Mrs. Thelma McMahon of Marshall, Tex.

Bay boxers top Gonzales squad

Bay boxers staged a 9-4 win over the Gonzales, La., club before a good crowd at the National Guard armory Sunday night. It was their second win of the fall season.

Rock cage plan opens on Dec. 4

St. Stanislaus will open its 1962-63 cage season Dec. 4 against the Picaune Maroon Tide, beginning a schedule which includes 17 regular games and four tournaments.

The Rockcaw cagers, coached by Brother Ralph, will miss the services of Mike Gore and Waldo Caceres, their forward-guard combination that led in scoring last season. A crew of lettermen return, however, including center Wayne Carr and guard Nodie Ladner, two regulars all last year.

Highlighting the 1962-63 campaign are two dates with city rival Bay High. The two teams will square off at Bay High Dec. 11 and again at Stanislaus gym Jan. 29.

The schedule is: Dec. 4, Picaune here; Dec. 5-8, Gulfport tournament; Dec. 8, Kern School, Pass Christian (if not still in tourney); Dec. 11, at Bay High; Dec. 14, Notre Dame, Biloxi; Dec. 18, OLV here; Dec. 26, at Benjamin Franklin; Dec. 28, Ben, Franklin here; Jan. 4, OLV, Pascagoula; Jan. 6, Sacred Heart, Hattiesburg; Jan. 8, at Picaune; Jan. 9-12, Harrison Central tournament; Jan. 13, Sacred Heart here; Jan. 15, Kern here; Jan. 18, Notre Dame here; Jan. 19, Pass High here; Jan. 22, at Pass High; Jan. 23-26, Bay High tournament; Jan. 29, Bay High here; Feb. 1, St. John here; Feb. 6-9, Sub-District tournament.

The playoff for the Mississippi Catholic Conference championship has been set for Sunday, Feb. 3, should the Rocks win the South Division crown.

BEST IMPROVED SKIPPERETTE—Mrs. G. S. Kennedy was trophy from Commodore K. W. Pepperdene at 1962 awards dinner Saturday at Bay-Waveland Yacht Club.

Merry hears... Orchids due for Lumpkin

The choice of Bay High's Teddo Thomas as the Gulf Coast Conference man of the year for 1962 certainly came as no surprise. We were surprised and disappointed when the Tigers' coach, Lance Lumpkin, failed to gain "coach of the year" recognition.

It wasn't implying that Pass Christian mentor Lawrence Allen, coach of the Tigers, was not deserving of the honor. He led his Pass High team through their best season in quite some time. In fact, the Tigers suffered only two defeats, dropping a 19-0 decision to Bay High's seven-point verdict to conference runner-up Ocean Springs.

In the league's four-year history, Bay High has won three championships and finished second last year, all under Lumpkin's coaching. The year the Tigers were picked third by most observers and second by anyone. Although only one experienced coach returned and he was faced with the prospect of having to lead an unseasoned quarterback, Lumpkin guided his squad to a successful conference season.

Lumpkin should have won the award in 1959. After a winless season, the Tigers lost only one league game and won the championship with a come-from-behind 20-19 victory over Long Beach in Long Beach. In 1960, his Hengals were pressed by another conference eleven in winning their championship. Again, another coach received the award.

Lumpkin has served as Bay High head football coach since his nine seasons, his teams have won over 40 games, have two losing seasons, and have always been praised for their sportsmanlike play. Lumpkin's mark for the four years since he left Bay High from the DeSoto Conference to the Gulf Coast Conference is 28-9-2, as good if not better than any coach in the area.

No matter who has received the Coach-of-the-Year awards for the last four years, and whether or not Lumpkin ever gets the selection, the people of Bay St. Louis know good and well who is the Gulf Coast Conference's consistently outstanding football instructor.

Football forecast

Our final week's prognostication parade finds only a scattering of games scheduled. Although the '62 grid collegiate grid season won't conclude until Dec. 8 when UCLA and Syracuse collide, other major teams wind up Saturday, except those already finished.

In the Southeastern Conference we like title-bound Ole Miss over Mississippi State in their traditional season-ending battle. State's tie to upset the Rebs but will have to wait at least one more year.

Alabama is the pick here to regain form and defeat Auburn's toppling Tigers, while Tennessee will defeat Vanderbilt, Miami will defeat Florida, and Georgia Tech will down Georgia in other early clashes.

In the day's big national contest, always one of the year's feature matchups, Army meets Navy. Army has a 6-3 mark and Navy is 4-4, and in what should be a real close one we'll take the Cadets.

The other real important game finds Southern California's Bruins facing Notre Dame in Los Angeles and will undoubtedly decide who'll finish first nationally in 1962. A win for Notre Dame will give Ole Miss top ranking providing the Rebs win as expected in the State. Much as we're hoping for a Notre Dame upset, we'll stick with Southern Cal.

Elsewhere, it'll be Rice over Baylor, Boston College over Holy Cross, Houston over Cincinnati, Oklahoma over Oklahoma State, TCU over Virginia, TCU over SMU, and UCLA over Utah.

Albert Brignac, top local AJEC bowler for two or three years and now a freshman at Ole Miss, returned to Bay St. Louis during Thanksgiving Holidays and proved he still had the old touch. He scored over 550 for three games Friday night, then came back with a 613 Saturday. We challenged him to a match Saturday afternoon and he promptly bowled 241!

Three Southeastern Conference gridderies have been named to the All-American Football Goaches All-American Team, and three have gained recognition on either the second or third team. Alvin Jerry Stovall of LSU, center Lee Roy Jor-tan of Alabama, and Georgia Tech guard Rufus Guthrie all were chosen to the first team. Ole Miss's Jim Dunaway won a tackle position on the second team, while Kentucky and Tom Hutchinson and LSU's Fred Miller were selected to the third team.

Entire squads will be announced in this week's issue of the Sportsman.

My practice has been interrupted for a short time because of fire which rendered inoperative some of my dental equipment. Due to the promptness and efficiency of local fire departments and many volunteers the interruption was kept to a minimum and losses sustained were negligible.
The only appreciable loss among our records was the appointment book and our only means of re-establishing it will be through personal calls from patients having appointments.
